RE: 2022 ADDC Financials Update

I would like to give you, the membership, my personal apology for the 2022 Financials not being completed on time. The 2022 Financial Review Committee had some changes throughout the year. The Chairman could not fulfill the duties and had to resign. A new Chairman would need to be found and approved by the ADDC Board. Next, a member of the 2022 FRC had to step down and another member found and approved by the Board. Each time, needing to be caught up on the process of the review and continuing forward. As with any review, questions arise that need to be answered and that takes time. We are a professional organization, and we are also all volunteers who dedicate our time and efforts to the Association. In an effort to speed up the process of reviewing the 2022 Financials, I have asked the 2023 Financial Review Committee to assist. We have set a realistic deadline to have the 2022 review (quarterly and year-end) completed and to the ADDC Board for review by the end of July and distribution to membership. I understand the frustration and appreciate those who have voiced their concerns. I am listening to you, and I am doing what it takes to move forward and see this financial review completed for each of you. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns you may have.

Thank you,

Barbara Pappas
